RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Members of the Central Presbyterian Church upon the Resignation of Their Pastor.
Rev. H. Kerr Taylor.

Never, perhaps, in the history of our little city, has the relationship between pastor and people been more sorrowfully and reluctantly severed, than yesterday morning at the Central Presbyterian Church when the young pastor, Rev. H. Kerr Taylor, requested that the congregation unite with him in asking Presbytery for his release to go to China.

Although his stay here has been brief, he will never be forgotten by the people to whom he has ministered. In their memory, he will live as one who has kept close to the Master; gaining from Him much of His power and attraction; in their hearts, as one who has learned His love and imparted it, winning all who have come to know Him, in return.

At the congregational meeting appropriate resolutions were adopted. Other transactions at this time were the election of Mr. J. Condit Stevenson as an elder and Mr. James B. Ross as a deacon.

Mr. Taylor will remain with the Central Church until after the seventeenth of this month.

BIG SALES

Are Expected by the Heads of the Local Warehouses at the Opening of the Opening of the 1916-17 Season Tomorrow Morning at 9 O'clock.

The opening of the tobacco season of the Mayville market this season of 1916-17 will be held tomorrow morning beginning at 9 o'clock. Plans are being made for a very successful season in this city and to bring this city more to the fore as a loose leaf market.

The warehousemen will hold a meeting in this city tonight to appoint a supervisor of sales and to make some plans regarding the opening of the season. It is understood that there are three candidates for the position of supervisor. The three gentlemen are expert judges of tobacco and the warehousemen will have a rather difficult time in selecting one out of the three for the position.

The warehousemen will also decide tonight the house in which to open the sales. There will be hardly any choice in this matter as each of the warehousemen has about an equal amount of tobacco on hand. The sales will start promptly at 9 o'clock regardless of which house they will open in. The sales will continue in a regular order from the house in which they start and it is probable that all houses will get a sale for the opening day.

It is thought by some of the leading tobacco men that about 200,000 pounds of the weed will be on the floors of the various houses to be disposed of tomorrow. A great number of wagons are rolling in this morning as the growers are anxious to take advantage of the opening prices. The average on the Lexington market at the opening day was $16.35 per hundred and the local market is expected to do as well.

While the fall has been rather dry in this section of the country yet in the past two weeks there has been enough rain to get the tobacco in condition for shipping. The growers immediately took advantage of this damp spell in order to get their tobacco on the market before the holidays so as to obtain some Christmas money. Very few whole crops will be brought in before the holiday season it is thought.

It is expected that there will be no delay in the unloading of tobacco on the market this year as has been experienced in previous years. This condition last year was greatly improved and it is thought that there is ample facilities this year so as to cause no delay.

A number of years ago, before the Mayville market had reached its present state of development, farmers experienced a great deal of delay in selling, and the tobacco often remained on the streets for several days with no sort of shelter. This condition has been done away with now. There are eight houses in this city and the drive-ways of these houses provide ample shelter for any tobacco that cannot be immediately unloaded, and the floor space is so large that very little delay is experienced in unloading. Last year there were but few times that the tobacco could not have been unloaded and sold within three days after reaching the market.

With the opening of the tobacco season each year a large number of persons gain employment that would otherwise be denied them. It is estimated at 1000 people annually find employment during the tobacco season in the warehouses and in the redrying plants. Including buyers, floor managers, auctioneers and laborers. A large number of women are included in this, they being employed in the redrying plants sticking tobacco.

The following are the sales managers at the various houses:
Farmers and Planter, Mr. A. L. Powers.
Growers, Mr. J. C. Rains.
Independent-Central, Mr. L. C. Parker.
Amazon, Mr. T. F. Goodman.
Home, Mr. A. T. Day.
Liberty, Mr. C. M. Jones.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock the horse of Mr. Joe Ring of the Plumville precinct ran away. Mr. Ring was driving up Limestone street and upon turning the corner at Third street an auto belonging to Mr. Worthington struck the buggy. The horse scared and began to run down Third street. Mr. S. W. Newell, proprietor of the Newell stable, saw the horse coming down the street and caught it. The buggy was badly smashed by the collision. Mr. Ring was thrown from it and suffered several severe bruises about the elbows and knees.

BOY KILLS SELF

Mr. John Martin, aged 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Martin, who reside near Vanceburg, committed suicide Saturday morning about 7 o'clock by shooting himself in the side. The boy's mother was working in the kitchen when she heard the report of a shotgun. Rushing upstairs and into the boy's room she found his body lying on the bed. The left side had almost been entirely blown away. No cause can be assigned for the deed as the boy was in good health and good spirits.

CITY FOLKS UP THERE

Street Commissioner Ben T. Smith was given as hearty greeting this morning by those residing along Second street in the Fifth Ward as if he had been Santa Claus. And Ben looked as if he were pleased to be there, too. The occasion was that he had the street sweeper up there, sweeping off the new brick street, he having scraped it last week. Now it is hoped this will not be the last time this good deed will happen to that end of the town.

Mr. and Mrs. Luc C. Gaebele are in Frankfort for the winter. Mr. Gaebele being connected with the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. at that point.

On next Monday from the corner of Market and Second streets there will be sold to the highest bidder one Reo Truck, several contractors tools, picks, shovels, etc., and several sewer hoses. CLARKE FARROW, Administrator.

The many friends of Miss Edith Hoeft will be delighted to learn that her health is very much improved.

GEORGE E. COLBY

Famous Cartoonist Will Appear on the Local Stage on Next Monday Night in the High School Building—Draws Remarkable Pictures.

Mr. Colby, the cartoonist, who will appear in the Mayville High School auditorium tonight in appearance is almost the living image of the immortal Bill Nye. As he talks to his audience he transfers a variety of conceptions from his imaginative brain to the concrete form of crayon pictures. Some of his pictures are amusing; some, such as his landscape scenes, are as beautiful as paintings. Many corridors and classrooms in public school buildings in Chicago are ornamented with large crayon pictures that are souvenirs of George E. Colby's popular entertainment "New Ideas in Crayon."

The Chicago Tribune in speaking of Colby says that he is remarkable for combining in his treatment strength, sentiment, delicacy and a nameless charm. The Chicago News says, "Mr. Colby's talks are full of surprises, and one marvels at the sudden appearance of pictures both beautiful and comic as they come out of a mass of color and lines."

The most effective transformation that is attempted by Mr. Colby is that embodying the arousing of Mount Vesuvius from slumber to rage. He draws in colors of crayon illustrations of the famous mountain as viewed across the beautiful bay of Naples; the artist darkens the sky with a sudden brush of black smoke from the crater. This addition to the scene is quickly followed by the issuance of a stream of fire and lava, which pours over the bowl of the crater and down the mountain side. The picture is rapidly altered to display volcanic fire lighting up a cloudy sky and being reflected in the waters of the bay.

NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN HERT'S ANNOUNCEMENT

The announcement made Tuesday by Mr. A. T. Hert that he is in favor of Statewide prohibition in Kentucky will be regarded by both Republicans and Democrats as peculiarly significant.

Mr. Hert is the Kentucky member of the Republican National Committee. During the campaign just ended he was the chairman of the sub-committee with headquarters at Chicago which had direct management of the canvass in the Western States. Mr. Hert is a citizen of Louisville, where he has important and extensive business interests, and where the opposition to Statewide prohibition will be more powerful than anywhere else in the State.

Naturally there is considerable curiosity as to how Mr. Hert, considering his position in the Republican party, reflects the sentiments of his intimate political associates both in Kentucky and in the Nation. He is the first Republican officially connected with the party organization in Kentucky to state publicly that in the coming contest he will support the Statewide movement, and since he is virtually the head of the party organization in the State, it will at once be assumed that he has discussed this question with influential members of the State Central Committee and has found that some of them at least are in sympathy with his views.

It is possible that Mr. Hert's attitude on this question, thus early expressed, may create a sentiment in favor of him for United States Senator at the election in 1918, provided the "dry" element in the Republican party at that time is able to assume control of party affairs. If Senator James is the Democratic nominee to succeed himself, which now seems probable, although the Democratic "drys" do not concede this, he will no doubt remain true to his well-known anti-prohibition sentiments, and this naturally would result in a crystallization of the prohibition vote, to a large extent, in favor of a "dry" nominee in the Republican party to oppose him.

It has been suggested that it would be a good idea for the Republicans of Kentucky to hold a convention at an early date to take some action, as a party, on the question of Statewide prohibition.

There does not appear to be any good reason why this should be done, now or at any other time. Strictly speaking, prohibition is not a party question. If a vote on Statewide prohibition should be postponed until the fall of the year 1919, the Republican State convention which would then assemble to write a platform for the party nominees for State officers to stand upon could very properly, and as a matter of fact should, state its position plainly and emphatically either for or against Statewide prohibition. In the meantime a party convention for this purpose would be little less than foolish. Let the sentiment within the party crystallize logically and in an orderly manner. Any gentlemen who have political ambitions in any direction are at perfect liberty to follow the example set by Mr. Hert and publish their sentiments from the house tops.

Naturally there will be pronounced divisions on this subject between both Republicans and Democrats of prominence. In 1915, at the time the Republican State platform convention was held, leading Republicans did not believe that the time had come for a test vote on the question of Statewide prohibition. A majority of the members of the committee on resolutions favored a plank declaring for the county unit and the convention, after an orderly discussion of the report of the platform committee, adopted this plank. It is no doubt true, that in the convention there was a large number of delegates then in favor of Statewide prohibition but they deferred to the judgment of the party leaders.

When the next Republican State convention is held, which will be in the year 1919, the situation may, and probably will be, different. At that time, in all probability, the Statewide question will be paramount to all others. It is now generally conceded that a vote on it cannot possibly be postponed beyond that date. Therefore, in the judgment of The Leader, there should be no party convention until the orderly course of events a party convention is necessary. In the meantime, as suggested above, there is no obstacle to any Republican or any Democrat, making his sentiments known.

The opinion of any man who needs the support of his party before reaching a conclusion on this question, either for or against Statewide prohibition, would be of no special value on any subject or in any crisis.—Lexington Leader.

SOME UNWORTHY PHASES OF A REMARKABLE POLITICAL CONTEST

For the partisan, whatever his predilections, there has been ample opportunity for rejoicing at some time since the closing of the polls on Tuesday. Looking back upon the campaign as a whole, however, there is not much to inspire rejoicing in the heart of the American who believes that politics in this country should be kept upon a high plane.

It is for others more directly interested to apportion the responsibility for the "manhandling" Mr. Hughes' campaign received from the start; the Herald contents itself with calling attention to the fact. At a time when earnest work should have been under way some of the shining lights of Republican management were dividing their time between congratulating themselves upon the certainty of victory and striving to find a way to take to themselves all the credit therefor, incidentally excluding from participation in campaign work others whose knowledge and experience should have been gladly welcomed. The results of incompetent Republican management are seen in the returns from States assumed to be "safe."

How much Mr. Hughes was to blame for this condition it is not possible to say. Nor is it possible to say whether he was responsible for the mistakes of his own early campaigning. At a time when he should have been dealing with great issues like the tariff he was devoting his time to petty criticisms that made an undeniably bad impression upon voters who were expecting the larger things. Looking back to his record as a campaigner in this State, it is hard to believe that the responsibility for this mistake did not rest with the Republican management rather than with Mr. Hughes.—N. Y. Herald.

If Mr. Wilson really wishes to name his successor, why doesn't Colonel House or John Lind appear promptly to the front and admit the identity of the selected favorite?

The Board of Education of New York City has authorized the re-establishment of spanking in the schools. It may be right, but not if it is done publicly.

CHESAPEAKE BAY BASE IS URGED
CAPTAIN JONAH MCKEAN
MAKES RECOMMENDATIONS
BEFORE HOUSE COMMITTEE

Washington, December 1.—The Atlantic fleet needs an adequate fleet base on Chesapeake Bay, Captain Jonah McKean, aide for material to the chief of operation, told the House Naval Committee today. He urged the purchase of the old Jamestown exposition site, facing the broad anchorage ground in Hampton Roads, for the purpose.

Captain McKean appeared to explain estimates of $5,133,000 for the air service and since there would be an aviation field in the proposed base he went into the plan in some detail, although the Navy Department has not yet recommended to Congress any action on the project. The owners ask $1,400,000 for the exposition land, which includes about 640 acres. Capt. McKean said, Chairman Padgett remarked that such a figure would mean a wide margin of profit, but the officers thought the facilities offered for sale were worth the price.

Captain McKean said the navy had purchased 123 aircraft since the air service was established in 1911. There are now nineteen aeroplanes and three kite balloons in actual service he said, while a non-rigid dirigible and seventy-seven aeroplanes have been ordered. As yet, he added, American manufacturers have not turned out a satisfactory seaplane. The department has issued specifications, however, from which good results are expected.

Captain Plunket, director of gunnery exercises, told the committee today that he favored the largest possible guns for the fleet and thought the battle cruisers should carry 16-inch instead of 14-inch weapons as planned. He believed 18-inch and even 20-inch guns should be under design now against future need.

HAD BRONCHIAL ASTHMA

So Hadly Man Could Not Lie Down—Cured by Vinol.

For years and years we have been telling the people of Maysville that Vinol is a wonderful remedy for bronchial troubles. Here is positive proof: Tilden, Ill. "For five years I suffered from bronchial asthma. In the winter time I was obliged to sit in a Morris chair all night, as I could not lie down, owing to that dreadful choking sensation. I tried nearly every known remedy, but nothing gave me any relief until one day I met the Station Agent at Williamsville, Ill., and he said he had been a sufferer for years, but had been cured by Vinol. I at once commenced to take it, and the result is my cough is gone, my appetite has improved and I can lie down and sleep all night. My experience leads me to believe that Vinol is a certain remedy for bronchial asthma." John H. Conde, Tilden, Ill.

The reason that cough syrups fail in such cases is because they are palliative only, while Vinol removes the cause, being a constitutional remedy in which are combined beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates. It strengthens and revitalizes the entire system and assists nature to expel the disease. John C. Pecor Drug Store. Also leading drug store in all Kentucky towns.

BALLOTS ARE STOLEN AND BURNED IN WOODS—FEDERAL AGENTS INVESTIGATE INCIDENT

Charleston, W. Va., December 1.—Special agents of the Department of Justice are investigating the theft from the vault in the County Clerk's office at Pineville of ballots cast at Clear Fork Precinct. Arrests are expected. Access to the vault was obtained through an iron shutter in the rear while the front entrance to the vault was guarded. The ballots were carried into a nearby woods and burned. The result of the election in this precinct decides the race for Prosecuting Attorney of the county. The Supreme Court of Appeals, on petition of Herbert W. Sanders, Democratic nominee for Sheriff, has ordered the Canvassing Board to take evidence with reference to the vote cast at Clear Fork.

MARGIN OF ONLY FIFTY-SIX

Concord, N. H., December 1.—The Governor and Council today issued a formal declaration of the election of New Hampshire's Democratic candidates for Presidential Electors, after an oral canvass of the Presidential vote. SHORTAGE OF STORAGE EGGS IN NEW YORK CITY

New York, December 1.—New York is suffering from a shortage of cold storage eggs, according to a report of the State Board of Health made public tonight, which asserts that the supply on September 1, this year, was 24 per cent less than on hand when the latest state census was taken 791,587 cases, as compared with 1,033,253, September 1, 1915, a decrease of 241,666 cases, of 30 dozen each. Greater New York city shared in the shortage in the extent of more than 169,000 cases.

All such eggs must be plainly marked "cold storage" before being placed on sale in this state, under a 72-hour "millitium", to dealers delivered today by John J. Dillon, state commissioner of foods and markets. Mr. Dillon predicted that retail prices of cold storage eggs would drop to 35 cents a dozen within ten days.

SUBMARINE GUARDED BY SMALLER UNDERSEA CRAFT WHILE IT SHELLS DUTCH STEAMER OFF THE CANARY ISLANDS

London, December 1—A Reuter dispatch from Las Palmas, Canary Islands, says the Dutch steamship Kediri, 3,778 tons gross, has been sunk. The crew was landed.

The Kediri was sunk by shell fire from a large submarine, which was accompanied by a smaller submarine. The smaller craft did picket duty, the dispatch says, while the Kediri was being shelled.

Lloyd's announces the sinking of the Danish steamship Egholm, 1,348 tons gross, and of the French sailing vessel St. Ansbart, 275 tons. The crew of the St. Ansbart was landed.

The shipping agency also announces the sinking of the Norwegian steamer Najaal.

SANTO DOMINGO OCCUPIED BY U. S. MILITARY FORCES

Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, November 30—The proclamation of military rule in the Dominican republic issued by Captain H. S. Knapp, in command of the United States forces here, declares, on behalf of the American Government, that the republic has been occupied by military forces. It gives assurance that there is no intention on the part of the United States to destroy the independence of the republic, but on the contrary, expresses a desire to assist the country to establish internal order and to enable it to comply with the provisions of its conventions and to fulfill its obligation as a member of the family of nations.

The Dominican laws are to remain in force, except such as conflict with the object of the occupants. Quiet prevailed here last night.

TOO DANGEROUS TO OVERLOOK

Maysville People Will Do Well to Heed the Warning.

To have good health, the digestion, heart, lungs and kidneys must work perfectly. When there is anything wrong with the digestion, heart or lungs, a very noticeable pain or distress gives prompt warning. Kidney trouble is more easily overlooked, however, and too often gains a long start. But kidney trouble does give early signs, and backache, headache, dizzy spells, rheumatic pains, too frequent, scanty or painful urination should not be neglected. When these warnings appear, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the reliable, successful, strongly recommended kidney remedy. Assist the medicine by taking things easier, reducing the diet and the use of liquor. A severe attack of kidney disease may be avoided. Doan's Kidney Pills have won the grateful praise of Maysville people. Read this Maysville resident's endorsement.

W. F. Lynch, 127 W. Third St., Maysville, says: "My kidneys were weak and the passage of the kidney secretions were scanty and painful. Having used Doan's Kidney Pills before, I again got a box. They quickly restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lynch had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

WHAT! NOT DEAD! HULL MOOSE SLOWLY IS BEING RESTORATED, 'TIS WHISPERED

New York, December 1—The National Progressive party, though to have been fatally wounded, if not killed, at Chicago last June, is being resuscitated slowly but surely. This was the news which brought anything but tinglings of pleasure to leaders of the two old line parties today.

The Bull Moose organization, unless present plans miscarry, expects to make its second debut at St. Louis late in January in a grab so strange that the party of four years ago may not even be recognized. Not even the name of emblem is likely to remain, while George W. Perkins, Horace Wilkin, William Hamilton Childs and other big Eastern men of wealth who supported the party between the last two presidential elections, are to be conspicuous only by their absence from the roles of the reorganized party.

Under the auspices of state "reorganization committees" the old Progressive party is being brought back to life in every state of the Union, according to the news which leaked out today. Following preliminary meetings in the separate states there is to be a big national gathering in St. Louis at which new articles of faith are to be written, new principles evolved and new national leaders chosen.

A good inflow makes a good outflow; he who takes in much can and must give much.

DEPORTATION PROTEST IN RE-NEWED BY U. S.

Washington, December 1—Acting on its own behalf, the American Government has informed Germany anew of its deep concern over the deportation of Belgians from their own country by the German military authorities. This action has been taken as a result of information about the deportation gathered from different sources and after fruitless informal efforts on behalf of the Belgians made by American Charge Grew at Berlin.

Germany has been informed that the treatment of the Belgians has made a very bad impression in this country and that the United States cannot avoid taking notice of the situation, basing its stand on the broad grounds of humanity.

The information already in the hands of the State Department on the situation was supplemented today by the Belgian Minister, E. Havenith, who reported to Secretary Lansing that more than 100,000 Belgians had been deported, and that deportations are continuing at the rate of 3,000 a week.

The new steps taken by the United States were a visit of Colonel E. M. House and James W. Gerard, American Ambassador to Germany, to the White House and State Department earlier in the week. Ambassador Gerard, who plans to leave for Berlin Tuesday, will be in a position to present the personal views of President Wilson to the German Foreign office when he arrives there.

CAR SHORTAGE IN SOUTH AND WEST TO BE AIDED

New York, December 1—To afford quick relief to the railroads which are suffering most severely from a car shortage, the American Railway Association undertook today to force a larger number of box cars from other sections of the country to the South and West. Announcement was made here that instructions had been issued to virtually all railroads by the Conference Committee on Car Efficiency of the association, directing them to turn over to their Southern and Western connections more box cars than were received in return. This applies to both loaded and empty cars.

Under these directions, it was announced, New England railroads which have on their lines more cars than they own, must turn over to their Southern and Western connections 30 per cent. more cars than they received from those lines. Railroads of the Trunk line and Central Freight territory and lines of the Central West must send West and South 20 per cent. more cars than they receive in return. Southern and Western roads are required to send 10 per cent. more.

All railroads were directed to send to the Conference Committee on Car Efficiency at Washington weekly reports showing the number of cars received or delivered to other roads, so as to indicate the direction in which the cars were moved.

LIFTING OF EMBARGO ON ARMS TO MEXICO CONSIDERED BY PRESIDENT

Washington, December 1—Although no official news of the rout of the Carranza forces at Chihuahua by the Villa bandits came to the State or War Departments today or to the Mexican Embassy, Eliseo Arredondo, the Ambassador Designate, after conferences with Secretaries Lansing and Baker expressed the belief that the unofficial reports were true, and ascribed the defeat of the Carranza forces to a lack of ammunition and food rather than demoralization.

Soon after Mr. Arredondo's visit to them, Secretaries Lansing and Baker separately conferred with President Wilson. No announcement was made, but it was apparent in official circles that there was some apprehension over the situation which might confront this Government should Villa advance north, as has been predicted, take Juarez and establish himself as a de facto authority again at the doors of the United States.

From a military standpoint, possession of Juarez and Chihuahua might lead to possession of Monterrey, Saltillo, Durango and practically military control of the east portion of Northern Mexico.

The President is said to be seriously considering lifting the embargo on the exportation of arms to Mexico.

A "congress of continental American history" is to be held in Rio de Janeiro in 1922 during the centennial celebration of the independence of Brazil.

JONES sometimes wakes up feeling cross and in consequence the family know it without his telling them in so many words.

Mrs. Jones attributes it to biliousness and if it doesn't wear off during the day she gives him a dose of liver medicine at night. The next morning he feels better and she gives him coffee for breakfast,—and the next morning,—and the next morning. And in a few days Jones has another spell.

Dear Mrs. Jones means all right, but she doesn't seem to realize that if she didn't give Jones his morning coffee she wouldn't have to give him the liver medicine and Jones would feel all right without both.

Housewives everywhere have found out that Instant Postum takes the place of breakfast coffee perfectly. And that is only one of the reasons why Instant Postum has wholly supplanted the use of coffee on thousands upon thousands of American breakfast tables.

CLIP THE COUPON; IT'S EASY TO DO

Ledger's Gigantic Gift of Free Money Startles Maysville—Everybody Pleased.

"It is going to revolutionize the motion picture business."

"It is the greatest gift ever presented to the people of Maysville."

"It is fascinating fun."

"Sure, it's the goods," gimmo them co-o-pons. My favorite's on tonight."

These are some of the comments classical and otherwise, that are being heard on the Ledger's great coupon offer.

Just a little coupon—that's all. Its really the simplest, most generous, most perfectly delightful scheme you ever saw. There isn't any amusement that can beat the movies and there couldn't be any easier way of getting in to see them free than by cutting out the Ledger's coupons.

The free coupons the Ledger is furnishing its readers which are good for the movies, merchandise, premiums or cash are an out-and-out gift. It is not a catch penny scheme, there are no strings attached, nothing expected in return.

The Ledger wants the good will and appreciation of her friends, nothing more. There is no money for you to pay—the coupons are the money. In each issue of the Ledger there appears a coupon that is just the same as money. All anyone needs to do is to clip that coupon and collect a few until he has enough to go to the movies FREE.

When you have enough coupons clipped to make it worth while—and you very soon will have—bring them to the Ledger's office or present them to any merchant who is progressive enough to give and redeem MUTUAL MOVIE STAMPS and exchange the coupons for the stamps. When 25 Mutual Movie Stamps are pasted on a card provided for that purpose you are ready to go to a five cent show.

New you will be able to get lots of stamps from merchants in Maysville. These merchants who give and redeem "MUTUAL MOVIE STAMPS" give you the stamps in appreciation for your continued patronage and they also give you SERVICE "Not how little but how much for your money."

We can, therefore, recommend to you the merchants who handle "MUTUAL MOVIE STAMPS" who besides giving you the above give you the best merchandise for the least money, consistent with good business methods.

Now you can secure a large quantity of stamps from these merchants if you ask for them with every purchase and they can be added to the collection of coupons cut from the Ledger.

Don't forget that if you do not want to go to the movies you may open a saving account with them at the STATE NATIONAL BANK or you can exchange them for handsome and valuable premiums.

The whole system has been organized for your special benefit and the Ledger WANTS you to take advantage of it, because it is to your own benefit.

Clip the coupon today and ask your merchant for "MUTUAL MOVIE STAMPS" with every purchase.

HAD FINE THANKSGIVING

Word has been received from Mr. James Brown, formerly a valued employee of the Ledger, that he is now stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Texas. Jimmy says that he had a dandy Thanksgiving Day and is still as anxious to fight for Uncle Sam. He sends us the following clipping from one of the newspapers in that section of the country:

Helena, Mont., Nov. 14.—The Reverend Francis Von Clafenbeck, of Tillamook, Ore., has sent his naturalization papers and a letter resigning his citizenship to the district court clerk here. The latter in part says that "to see a man returned to power after an administration and policy such as we have seen during the past four years, is too much for me."

VERY IMPRESSIVE

Were the Memorial Services of the Maysville Lodge B. P. O. E. Held Yesterday Afternoon in the Washington Opera House.

Rarely it falls to one's part to be able to witness such an impressive service as that of the annual memorial service conducted by the Maysville Lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks in the Washington Opera House yesterday afternoon.

Promptly at 2 o'clock the services began, the members of the lodge sitting in and taking their seats in a space held for them. A large crowd of visitors were present, both on the first floor and in the balcony.

The service opened with a prayer from Rev. H. Kerr Taylor, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church. The quartet, composed of Misses Edna Brockhoff, soprano, and Elizabeth Langbrake, alto, and Messrs. Russell Dunham, tenor, and George Segers, bass, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Church at the piano, sang a very beautiful anthem. The officers of the lodge then held the opening ceremonies of the Memorial Service. The roll call of the names of those members who have crossed the Great Divide was held. A tenor solo, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say," by Mr. Dunham and a contralto solo by Miss Langbrake was interspersed with the ceremonies.

Hon. Richard Crane of Cincinnati, delivered the eulogy for the absent members. Mr. Crane held his audience spellbound under his masterful flow of oratory and his message, while a eulogy, brought a word of cheer to the living. He said:

"The word farewell is written on the threshold of life and soon all must part to meet no more. Today the flowers bud forth; tomorrow comes a killing frost. We should face the truth of death as one of the greatest facts in life. The very march of the calendar months is a funeral service. When one visits the cemetery, every monument and pillar of stone says, 'Dust thou art, and to dust thou shalt return.'"

"Away with the philosophy that teaches when the spark of life is extinct, there comes an eternal sleep. Give me the faith of the bright kingdom beyond the grave."

"Faith teaches us that life is real, is earnest, that the grave is not its goal. Let theirs, whom you honor, be a sleep of peacefulness. The bodies of the just slumber, while the angels keep the binnacle. Hope is the virtue that blinds the souls of men to God."

"Words, the language of thought, and music, the language of emotion, combine to produce the language of the heart. Let our prayerful trust be that the souls longing of the departed be satisfied with the delights of Paradise."

"The problems of today confront us because of the serpent of selfishness abroad in the world. But brotherly love, such as is found in this order, is the opposite of selfishness. The problems of our day will never be solved until the ideals of your order reach into the hearts of men everywhere. When the seeds of self have been eradicated the millennium will be close at hand."

"The ideals of this order are in harmony with the traditions of the American Republic. We can expect good government from good men. Loyalty to the American Institutions ignores creed, class and region. Let us hope that the Star Spangled Banner will ever float proudly over this country and may it always be respected by every nation under the skies as it is today."

The closing exercises were conducted by the officers of the lodge. The closing prayer was made by the chaplain.

A great deal of the praise for the success of the service is due to the memorial committee of the order, composed of Messrs. Thomas W. Breen, Harry Daly, W. C. Watkins and Dr. J. A. Dodson. The services passed without a flaw and were certainly very beautiful.
